NAI Earle Furman New Welcomes Associate

Greenville, South Carolina (August 2026) – NAI Earle Furman, a leading full-service commercial real estate firm in the Carolinas, recently welcomed a new Associate to its Greenville, SC office.

Taylor Muir: Associate

Taylor Muir joined NAI Earle Furman as an Associate after graduating from Presbyterian College, where he studied Business Administration with concentrations in Accounting, Management, and Marketing. Taylor's interest in commercial real estate was cultivated during an internship with NAI Earle Furman, where he gained valuable knowledge and experience under the firm's strong leadership.

Originally from Athens, Georgia, Taylor brings a strong work ethic and leadership skills to the Greenville office, where he focuses on industrial assets.

About NAI Earle Furman

Founded by J. Earle Furman in 1986, NAI Earle Furman (NAIEF) has grown to become one of the largest commercial real estate brokerage and property management firms in the Upstate region of South Carolina. With a legacy spanning over four decades, the Firm specializes in the office, industrial, investment, retail, and land sectors, offering a diverse portfolio of services and specialized teams including sales, leasing, development, site selection, consulting, and property management. Operating three offices across the Upstate (Greenville, SC, Spartanburg, SC, and Anderson, SC), NAI Earle Furman is known for being experts in the field of commercial real estate and refining the Upstate market through its wide range of client services.

Through its affiliation with parent organization NAI Global, NAI Earle Furman is part of an integrated network of firms with a rich history of growth and collaboration. In 2017, the founding firm in the Upstate (NAIEF) merged with North Carolina's NAI Piedmont Triad, forming a dynamic partnership that expanded its reach across state lines. This market presence was further bolstered in 2019 through a strategic partnership with NAI Columbia (formerly Avant) in South Carolina's Midlands, culminating in a merger in January 2023. Today, this unified family of companies operates seven offices across North and South Carolina, combining regional expertise with a shared commitment to excellence. With integrity, collaboration, and client success at its core, the Company is redefining the standard for commercial real estate services in the Southeast.
