NAI Earle Furman Welcomes Two New Hires

Greenville, South Carolina (March 2026) – NAI Earle Furman, a leading full-service commercial real estate firm in the Carolinas, recently welcomed two new associates to its Spartanburg, SC office.

Michael Tanbonliong II – Senior Associate

Mike Tanbonliong is a Spartanburg native who graduated from high school in 2011 and began building his professional foundation while working at Carolina Country Club for eight years through high school and college. Since entering the commercial real estate industry in 2018, Mike has focused on leasing, sales, and investment transactions across the office, retail, and flex property sectors, with a strong emphasis on building lasting relationships. His work has been recognized with multiple CoStar Power Broker Quarterly Deal awards. Outside the office, Mike enjoys spending time with his wife, Katelyn, and their children, Claire and Luke.

Grayson Atkins - Associate

Grayson Atkins joined NAI Earle Furman after 3 years at Spencer/Hines Properties. Before entering real estate, Grayson served as the starting kicker for 5 years while at Furman and UNC, before a short stint with the Indianapolis Colts in 2022. As a native of Boiling Springs, South Carolina, he is very knowledgeable of the market across the Upstate. Grayson enjoys playing golf and going to the beach. He got married to his wife Amelia in March of 2023, and they are expecting their first child in August 2026.

About NAI Earle Furman

Founded by J. Earle Furman in 1986, NAI Earle Furman (NAIEF) has grown to become one of the largest commercial real estate brokerage and property management firms in the Upstate region of South Carolina. With a legacy spanning over four decades, the Firm specializes in the office, industrial, investment, retail, and land sectors, offering a diverse portfolio of services and specialized teams including sales, leasing, development, site selection, consulting, and property management. Operating three offices across the Upstate (Greenville, SC, Spartanburg, SC, and Anderson, SC), NAI Earle Furman is known for being experts in the field of commercial real estate and refining the Upstate market through its wide range of client services.

Through its affiliation with parent organization NAI Global, NAI Earle Furman is part of an integrated network of firms with a rich history of growth and collaboration. In 2017, the founding firm in the Upstate (NAIEF) merged with North Carolina's NAI Piedmont Triad, forming a dynamic partnership that expanded its reach across state lines. This market presence was further bolstered in 2019 through a strategic partnership with NAI Columbia (formerly Avant) in South Carolina's Midlands, culminating in a merger in January 2023. Today, this unified family of companies operates seven offices across North and South Carolina, combining regional expertise with a shared commitment to excellence. With integrity, collaboration, and client success at its core, the Company is redefining the standard for commercial real estate services in the Southeast.
